<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Students attending training, other than entry-level courses, have the option of wearing their official department uniform or civilian attire. Civilian attire is business casual - this includes shirts with collars, belted slacks (no jeans, t-shirts, or tennis shoes). Students wearing firearms while attending class must keep the weapon holstered. The exception to the dress code will be for skills training classes where the Executive Director shall set the appropriate dress code.
